1. The first part of the document is a title page. It contains the title of the report, the author's name, and the date of the report.

2. The second part of the document is an executive summary. It provides a brief overview of the main findings of the report.

3. The third part of the document is the main body of the report. It contains the detailed findings and conclusions of the study.

4. The fourth part of the document is a conclusion. It summarizes the key points of the report and provides recommendations for future research.

5. The fifth part of the document is a list of references. It lists the sources of information used in the report.

6. The sixth part of the document is an appendix. It contains additional information that is not included in the main body of the report.

7. The seventh part of the document is a glossary. It defines the key terms used in the report.

8. The eighth part of the document is a list of figures and tables. It provides a summary of the visual elements included in the report.

9. The ninth part of the document is a list of abbreviations. It defines the abbreviations used in the report.

10. The tenth part of the document is a list of acronyms. It defines the acronyms used in the report.
